

Greetings New Professional Staff,

Welcome to Dearborn Public Schools! Each year in August, the School Improvement/Dearborn Teacher University Department along with the Human Resources Department hosts a New Professional Staff Orientation that marks the beginning of the teacher induction for new instructional staff.

Orientation days are: Monday, Tuesday, August 19-20 (FULL DAY from 8:00 am to 3:30 pm) and Wednesday, August 21 (HALF DAY 8:00-12:15 pm), at the Administrative Service Building board room located at 18700 Audette, Dbn, MI 48124. Breakfast and registration is from 7:45-8:15 AM on all three days.

Professional development will include:

- Day One (Full day):
 - Meeting Dearborn Superintendent, Board Trustee Representative, Executive Directors and all district department directors and coordinators.
 - Resources and benefits available to Dearborn Public Schools employees.
- Day Two (Full day):
 - Professional development with a renowned presenter on effective classroom management strategies and respectful discipline
- Day Three (½ day):
 - Dearborn Public School Curriculum and Instructional Programs
 - Unpacking standards in your selected curricular area.
 - Special Education staff will meet with Special Education Coordinators and Director

All newly hired instructional staff are required to attend the three days as part of the Dearborn Teacher University program requirements.**
